

Terms of Use

Last Updated: August 19th, 2021

1. WELCOME TO G7 RESEARCH

Welcome to the educational apps of G7 Research. The JogNog app and the PayUsToLearn app are operated by G7 Research LLC. The term “G7 App” and “G7 App service” will refer to the JogNog and PayUsToLearn web and mobile apps and any similar or related sites or apps that are operated by G7 Research LLC.

Please read these Terms of Use carefully. If you do not agree to these Terms of Use you may not use the G7 Apps and services.

If you are under eighteen (18) years of age you must have a parent or legal guardian read and agree to these terms on your behalf.

If you are under thirteen (13) years of age you may not use the G7 Apps and services. In the future, we may allow users under thirteen years of age if they enter their age and the email address of a parent or guardian so that they can be confirm permission that the user is joining the G7 app.

2. USE OF THE G7 APP SERVICE

- a) The G7 App is only for your personal use. You cannot use it for a commercial enterprise.
- b) All content available on the G7 App is copyrighted and is the property of G7 Research or other third parties and cannot be used outside of the G7 App without permission.
- c) It is G7 Research’s policy to not accept any ideas for games or game improvements from users or others outside of G7 Research employees and consultants. This is to avoid any potential misunderstandings if similar ideas are developed independently by G7 Research and later appear as improvements to the game. If, despite this policy, you submit game ideas to G7 Research, then that submission will be treated as non-proprietary and non-confidential and that you will be granting to G7 Research a worldwide, fully paid, irrevocable, non-exclusive license to use that content by G7 Research in any way that G7 Research desires in perpetuity. This policy will override any language that you may supply as part of the submission that relates to intellectual property ownership.
- d) Game play, artwork, business processes of G7 Research are considered proprietary and protected under the full extent of the laws concerning intellectual property.
- e) Any software or other intellectual property of G7 Research that you use is done so with a non-exclusive license to use the service. G7 Research makes no representations of continuity of the service or availability of any content contained on G7 Research.
- f) Any content that is provided to the user such as, but not limited to, question content or quiz structure, are provided as a service with a limited time of access and a license to use that content. You agree that once all such content has been made available to you the user as a service for thirty (30) days or the length of a purchased subscription, all value of purchase will be considered to have been delivered to the user without any promise of further access. G7 Research reserves the right to terminate the service to any and all users at any time by reimbursing the pro-rated subscription price for time remaining in the subscription to the user. For apps such as PayUsToLearn, that provide financial incentives to players, G7 Research will not reimburse unused incentives, such as gift cards, if the user has not utilized them. G7 Research may refund unused financial incentives, such as gift cards, after a certain time period (such as 14 days) as part of game play to motivate students to complete their lessons. The amount refunded will be based on the cost of the incentive minus handling and restocking fees and will be determined by G7 Research.

- g) The G7 App service is a service with features that are continuously being introduced, removed and improved in order to improve the overall product. G7 Research reserves the right, at any time, to modify or temporarily suspend service without notice. You agree that G7 Research shall not be liable to you or to any third party for any modification or suspension of the service. In the event of permanent discontinuation of service, liability is limited to the paid subscription price, pro-rated to the amount of time remaining on the subscription. There will be no liability for any purchases other than for paid subscriptions or paid lessons that have not been completed within 30 days.
- h) G7 Research reviews videos and suggests them for educational content and age appropriateness but G7 Research cannot guarantee the appropriateness of any video for a particular student but only makes suggestions. Parents may view the video before purchase to determine if it is appropriate for their child. Video links provided by G7 Research lead to videos on the internet from such services as YouTube and Vimeo and they are responsible for their content. Occasionally those videos may be cancelled by their providers. In those cases, G7 Research will endeavor to replace the video with another video of equal value or allow the user to substitute a different lesson for the one that they paid for.
- i) Some G7 Research apps, such as PayUsToLearn, includes a reward with every lesson purchased. For example, a $10 gift card may be given to a student once they have completed a lesson that a parent paid $12 for. In no situation will PayUsToLearn ever be liable for providing more than one reward for any lesson purchased or a reward greater than the value paid for the lesson. G7 Research reserves the right to substitute a like reward of equal value if the reward typically provided with the lesson can no longer be provided. Lessons will have an expiration date and if they are not completed by the expiration date there will be no reimbursement for the lesson or the reward. In some situations, G7 Research may credit the parent's credit card for the value of the reward minus a restocking fee to cover transaction costs or may allow the parent to transfer the unused lesson charge to another lesson of the parent's choice.

3. YOUR ACCOUNT

- a) You will be provided with an account on the G7 App that will allow you to login and use the service.
- b) You agree that all information on your account including billing information is truthful and accurate.
